OUR PATTERN DEPARTMENT

All Patterns-10 Cents-All Patterns

Girls' Tucked bress, No. 921-This dressy little freck is made of rose-colored albatross, with black velvet and heavy erry insertion for trimmabs.

It is mounted on a fitted body little that closes in the center back. The walst is plain across the shoulders and blouses smartly over the narrow lace belt.

9131-GIRL'S TUCKED DRESS. 6, S, 10 and 12 years.

6, S, 10 and 12 years.

In front clusters of three tucks alternate with bands of lace, forming a square yoke. The tucks provide additional fullness, which blouses prettily. A plain black velvet collar completes the neck.
One-plece sleeves fit the upper arm closely, but increase in width at the elbow, where they are very wide. The fullness is arranged on velvet cuffs that are narrow in front and extend to deep points at the back.

A shallow yoke in the skirt is fitted emoothly around the weist and closes favisibly at the back, under two inverted plaits. The skirt portion is tucked to correspond with the blouse and attached to the lower edge of the yoke. It flares stylishly at the hem.

Bands of lace trim the plain spaces between the clusters of tucks, and narrow bands finish the edges of the cuffs and yoke.

Dresses in this mode may be made of one fabric and trimmed with velvet, lace, silk, braid and ribbon. Soft materials like cashmere, veiling and granite cloth are most appropriate, as heavier fabrics do not tuck well.

To make the dress for a girl of 8 years will require two and one-half yards of material 36 inches wide, with three-fourths of a yard for trimming. The pattern, No. 9131, is cut in sizes for girls of 6, 5, 10 and 12 years.

Giris' Long Coat, With Military Cape, No. 9144-Russian green cheviot is used for this stylish garment. This shade is particularly becoming to children who have pretty pink and white complexions. The coat fits well on the shoulders and bangs loosely in box effect to the hem completely covering the frock worn beneath. The adjustment is made with shoulder and under-arm seams, the coat closing in single-breasted style, with round gold buttons.

MH-GIRL'S ZONG COAT WITH MILL-4 6 8 10 and 12 years.

Narrow upper and under portions are gathered and arranged on these with bands, over which they droop well at the back.

A long military cape is fitted closely over the shoulders with small darta. It may be included in the neck seam, with the standing collar, or made to fasten on with invisible hooks and eyes. The latter plan is a good one for coats made of neavy cloth, that can be worn for fall or winter, and with or without the cape.

Garments in this style may be made of broadcloth, heavy sibeline or double-faced cloaking, and lined throughout with satin, or the coat may be finished without lining and the cape only faced if preferred.

To make the coat for a girl of $ years will require two and one-half yards of material 54 inches wides. The pattern, No. 3144, is cut in sizes for girls of 4, 6, 2, 18 and 12 years.
